

The Modulocube, A simple, evolving storage system

The EuroCave Modulocube is a folding rack that will allow you to store your bottles very simply.

Easy and quick to install
The Modulocube is delivered ready to assemble in a few quick, easy steps!

An ideal way to store your bottles

Made of solid beech to give maximum strength, the Modulocube allows you to get the best use out of your wine storage space. It has been specially designed to store all types of bottles (Bordeaux, Burgundy, Champagne...): no more lost labels, no more badly stored bottles. It offers you two options: you can either store your bottles all together, or you can add 5 or 6 rows of shelves and store them individually.

A modular system

Modules in this practical storage system may be used to create the storage space you need. Each Modulocube unit will store a single depth of any type of bottle (up to 50 bottles of Bordeaux). Completely modular, the Modulocube allows you to increase your storage capacity by assembling different modules, thus making the configuration evolve to meet your needs. The Modulocube is the ideal way to store your bottles, and you can assemble up to 3 modules, one on top of the other, without affecting their stability.

An attractive price

Looking after your bottles will no longer be a question of price. The Modulocube provides ideal wine storage at a very attractive price.
